1. Praise the Lord;
    O give thanks to the Lord for he is good :
    and his mercy endures for ever.

    or fully voice his praise?
3. Blessed are those who act according to justice :
    who at all times do the right.
4. Remember me O Lord
    when you visit your people with your favour :
    and come to me also with your salvation,
5. That I may see the prosperity of your chosen :
    that I may rejoice with the rejoicing of your people,
    and exult with those who are your own.
6. We have sinned like our fathers :
    we have acted perversely and done wrong.

20. At Horeb they made themselves a calf :
    and bowed down in worship to an image.
21. And so they exchanged the glory of God :
    for the likeness of an ox that eats hay.
22. They forgot God who was their saviour :
    that had done such great things in Egypt,
23. Who had worked his wonders in the land of Ham :
    and his terrible deeds at the Red Sea.
24. Therefore he thought to destroy them :
    had not Moses his servant stood before him in the breach *
    to turn away his wrath from destroying them.

Glory to the Father...
